

Facilities, Equipment, and Other Resources

William Riley Casper

1 Computer.

The PI has access to multiple computer laboratories maintained at CSUF, containing network printers and computers running multiple operating systems. The PI also has a linux workstation for personal use. The PI also has an Ipad and a windows laptop for personal use. Additionally as a faculty member, the PI may apply for access to the to high-performance computing facilities from the CSUF Center for Computational and Applied Mathematics.

2 Office.

The CSUF Mathematics Department provides the PI with a private office in the mathematics building.

3 Other Resources.

The CSUF Mathemtics Department has staff members on hand who are able to provide administrative and technical assistance. The university library maintains an subscriptions to many relevant domestic and international journals as well as an extensive collection of books spanning all aspects of pure and applied mathematics.